A GREAT LOSS TO GALLATIN

In Death of T. B. Yates, Gallatin and Daviess County Loses One of Its Best Citizens.

Died, at his home in our city on Tuesday morning, Feb. 24th, 1914, Thomas Booten Yates, aged 79 years.

This was the message flashed over the city last Tuesday that brought sorrow to the entire community. His death was doubtless as he would have wished. There was no period of extended illness, but it was a "falling asleep" without a struggle, a peaceful ending of a well spent life.

It was the writer's good fortune to have known Mr. Yates long and well, and we only knew him to esteem him more highly as the years passed by. Today we miss his kindly smile and friendly greeting. His cheerful, helpful life, his kindness to everybody will long linger as a fragrant memory and the record he has made will remain as a lasting treasure. No man stood higher in this community or was more universally beloved by all. He will be greatly missed by everybody. He was a devoted Methodist, on the official board and one of the trustees of the local church for many years, and his counsel was sought and relied upon in all the church enterprises. The church will miss him.

The funeral services are being held this (Thursday) afternoon at the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. Rixey. Interment at Brown cemetery.

T. B. Yates was born in Culpepper, Va., Feb. 3rd, 1836. He came to Gallatin in 1856 and engaged in teaching school, being elected county superintendent of schools in 1860. In 1865 he removed to Chillicothe and engaged in the drug business until 1874. In that year he returned to Gallatin and with Gov. Dockery organized the Farmers Exchange Bank, which he successfully managed for many years. He was also in the banking business at Jamesport for several years. He has been an important factor in the upbuilding of this town and county, having been closely identified with all those interests which have been for the good of the community. He married Miss Mary Peniston in 1859. She died about ten years ago. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Z. M. Williams of Lexington, Miss Lizzie Yates of this city, and Ed E. R. G., and Homer Yates of Kansas City.—Gallatin Democrat.

THE FIRST BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY
SO CAN YOU IF YOU PUT IT IN THE BANK

We all know the story of Mr. Rockefeller, and Mr. Carnegie, or Schwab, or any of our other great fortune builders. They began by PUTTING THEIR MONEY IN THE BANK. Not because they had too much—oh, no! They wanted that money in the bank so it would be safe and so it would be there to grasp the first good BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY. None of them dabbled in get-rich-quick schemes peddled around by smooth strangers.
